

RESOLUTION NO 1552

A RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING A CONTRIBUTION OF $8,600 TO THE JACKSON COUNTY CONTINUUM OF CARE TO SUPPORT THEIR COMMUNITY-WIDE EFFORT TO END HOMELESSNESS

RECITALS:

- 1 The City of Central Point is committed to improve the lives of the most vulnerable citizens
- 2 Two programs that show the City's commitment is the Water Rate Discount for Extreme Hardship, which allows eligible households to receive a discount of 50% of the regular water rate, and the St Vincent de Paul Social Services Program, where an annual contribution of $18,000 by the City is used to provide rental and utility assistance to Central Point residents in need
- 3 The programs have been very successful within the City of Central Point, however, there is a growing homelessness issue at a county-wide level
- 4 There is an opportunity for the City to partner with other local cities and non-profit agencies with Jackson County to help in the fight to end homelessness in the area
- 5 The Medford, Ashland/Jackson County CoC Program provides resources such as permanent housing, transitional housing, supportive services HMIS, and in some case homelessness prevention

The City of Central Point resolves as follows:

Section 1.
